

Road Safety Audit Awareness

Course Overview

This one-day course is designed for those people who are not directly involved in carrying out Road Safety Audits but are required to understand the Road Safety Audit process; including what is required of them, when commissioning or responding to Road Safety Audits.

Aims and Objectives

The aim of the course is to give delegates an introduction to the principles of road safety audit and to illustrate and discuss common problems that may affect highway safety. It will also inform and encourage colleagues to support casualty reduction activities in their day to day roles.

Topics Covered

This one-day course focuses on the following key areas:

- What is Road Safety Audit
- The relationship between Road Safety Audit and Road Traffic Collisions
- What Road Safety Auditors look for
- Legal implications of Road Safety Audit - Roles and responsibilities
- Safety Audit scheme notification and monitoring
- Workshop exercises in the above topics
- Delegate discussion

In-House Training

Please note this is only available as an in-house training course, delivered at your offices or at a suitable venue.

In-house training can often work out more cost effective where you have several members of staff you would like to be trained at any one time. The maximum number of delegates we can train on this course is limited to 16.

If you would like a quotation or further information regarding our in-house training, please contact us using one of the enquiry forms on our website.
